Pope Francis says:

Lent is the perfect time to remind ourselves of the life-giving water we received at our Baptism, turning away from things of the world, which ultimately leave us unsatisfied.

The water that gives eternal life has been poured out in our hearts on the day of our Baptism; then God transformed us and filled us by his grace, but it may be that we have forgotten this great gift, or reduced it to a mere piece of personal data; and maybe we go in search of 'wells' where the water will not quench.

In this case, then, this Sunday's Gospel on the Samaritan woman and her encounter with Jesus at the well is for us! Jesus speaks to us as he speaks to the Samaritan woman.

Of course, we already know him, but perhaps not yet recognized him as our Saviour.
