Tabor House in Birmingham is the Diocesan shelter for the homeless run by Father Hudson's Care along with a number of other partners. It now has 11 beds providing 24 hour accommodation but just as importantly the mentoring and other support to allow residents to move on to a new life with a settled place to live. It has continued operating throughout the pandemic with all its challenges relying on a dedicated band of volunteers as well as a small number of paid staff. Each bed costs the equivalent of £5000 a year to support. Donations will enable Tabor House to continue to provide this service to so many who feel abandoned and lost. Please be generous! For more information visit:
